LOUDOUN AND ARLINGTON TAKE HOME CCL CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

2013-2014 Seasonal Year Club to Club and Age Group Champions Announced

Charlottesville, VA, June 11, 2014 – Loudoun Soccer wins Overall Club Champions League trophy and Girls Club Champions League trophy.

“Loudoun Soccer is honored to win the CCL Overall and Girls trophies. The culmination of a seasonal year is represented by the efforts of our entire club, boys and girls. To win the Overall and Girls trophies is extremely difficult with the high level of competition offered in the CCL,” said Darryl Gee, Loudoun Soccer Director of Coaching.

Arlington Soccer Association comes away with the Boys Overall Champions League trophy.

“The CCL represents the very best competition in the Region. We are honored to have won the Boys Overall Club Champions League trophy against the best club competition around,” said, German Peri, Arlington Director of Coaching.

The Club Champions League presents the top clubs, based on the accumulation of club points earned by all club teams, an Overall Club Champion, Boys Club Champion and Girls Club Champion.

Boys Age Group Champions: (U11) FC Richmond, (U12) PWSI, (U13) Beach FC, (U14) Arlington, (U15) Loudoun, (U16) SOCA, (U17) Arlington, (U18) SYA

Girls Age Group Champions: (U11) Annandale, (U12) Braddock Road, (U13) DC Stoddert, (U14) Annandale, (U15) Braddock Road, (U16) PWSI, (U17) FASA, (U18) Loudoun

The Club Champions League strives to activate and accelerate youth soccer development through its club-centric, director-driven model. The Club Champions League consists of the top sixteen (16) youth soccer clubs in Virginia, DC and Maryland.
